BROWN RUDNICK PARTNER DANIEL B. ABRAHAMS

SCHEDULED TO TEACH

A-76 INSTITUTE COURSES ON SERVICE CONTRACT ACT AND DAVIS BACON ACT

Boston, MA, September 3, 2009 – Brown Rudnick, an international law firm, today announced that Daniel B. Abrahams, a partner in the Firm's Government Contracts and Wage and Hour Group in Washington, DC, has agreed to assume an active role in the teaching faculty of the A-76 Institute, LLC. As a faculty member, Mr. Abrahams will participate in the Institute's courses on the SERVICE CONTRACT ACT and the DAVIS BACON ACT.

Mr. Abrahams' practice spans the Fair Labor Standards Act, the Service Contract Act, The Davis Bacon Act and various state wage law. He represents clients in matters related to government contracts, wage and hour, and federal employee health care law. A former adjunct assistant professor at George Washington University Law School, Mr. Abrahams remains a frequent lecturer and author on government contracts, construction and labor standards topics.

Other course faculty members include Professor Gilbert J. Ginsburg and Mr. William Gross, both of whom are considered leading experts in this field.

The fall sessions of the programs are scheduled as follows:

THE SERVICE CONTRACT ACT

October 13-14, 2009 – Las Vegas, Nevada

November 17-18, 2009 – Washington, DC

Press Release

THE DAVIS BACON ACT

October 15, 2009 – Las Vegas, Nevada

November 19, 2009 – Washington, DC

Further details on the programs can be obtained by calling the A-76 Institute, LLC at (202) 776-7776 or be reviewing its website at www.a76institute.com. On site training is also available and the courses presented are listed on the GSA Advantage Schedule.
