Brown Rudnick Represents Amadeus Capital Partners As Lead Investors in $16 Million Second Round Financing of Secerno Limited

London, UK, August 5, 2008 – Brown Rudnick, a premier international law firm, recently advised European technology investor Amadeus Capital Partners in its $16 million second round financing of Secerno Limited. Secerno will use this funding to advance its award-winning database security and compliance platform and to expand its sales channels, principally in the US and EMEA. Eden Ventures and Spark Ventures also participated in this round.

The Brown Rudnick legal team comprised Roger Gregory, Partner, Private Equity; Tina Baker, Partner, Emerging Growth & Venture Capital; and Francine Naidoo, Associate, Corporate. Mr. Gregory commented, “Brown Rudnick has represented Amadeus in a number of European investments in emerging technology companies in the communications, computer hardware and software, e-commerce, medical and cleantech sectors. We greatly enjoyed working with the Amadeus team on this transaction and bringing the deal to a successful conclusion.”

The Amadeus team was led by Richard Anton and Nicolas Brusson. Secerno was advised by Osborne Clarke.

Secerno is an award-winning database security company. It provides the world’s most advanced, comprehensive and intelligent database security and compliance platform available to organizations today. Secerno’s flagship solution, Secerno.SQL, protects data at the highest level from known and unknown threats and enables continuous improvement of data security. More information is available at www.secerno.com.
